

Diversity NOW! 2014/15

Join Us

Education is more important than ever. As politicians call for body confidence lessons in school to combat the anxieties and low self esteem that two thirds of 11 years olds report, NOW! is the time for all CREATIVES to lead the way.

Recognition that the consumer and the global market is diverse is a more relevant position to adopt for us all.

Help us create a fashion future that empowers and emboldens the viewer and the wearer, envisioning impactful, emotionally considerate, commercially relevant practice in all areas of the industry.

Diversity NOW! 2014/15

We are delighted to be continuing our partnership with i-D and Arts Thread and we believe you have everything you need to engage with a highly relative and stimulating project. All our assets are linked under [www.allwalks.org/Campaigns/Diversity NOW 2015](http://www.allwalks.org/Campaigns/Diversity NOW 2015).

Kick off your project with an impactful 40 minute lecture film and download the academic brief approved by Diversity Network Director Mal Burkinshaw, also Course Leader for Edinburgh College of Art.

There are many teaching aids on this page from links to FAQ's and PDF downloads of our printed materials, including the 12 page All Walks News, featuring endorsements from Nick Knight, Naomi Campbell, Rick Owens and many others.

If you have any questions feel free to email us at info@allwalks.org and Caryn or Tineke will respond ASAP, by either emailing in reply or phoning your mobile directly if you supply it.

We look forward to working with you for the 3rd year of Diversity NOW! but before we end we have an ask....
